ADVERTISEMENTS 198

1961

It is with great pleasure
that we,
the combined annual staff
of our Upper Sandusky
High Schools,
Upper Sandurky, Ohio,
proudly present
the

INDIAN VILLAGE

It is with pride
that we,
the editors
and business managers, present
our combined effort

THE 1961

INDIAN VILLAGE

In presenting this first combined annual, we hope you enjoy our pictorial coverage of the year.

Our goal has been to pave the way for more successful annuals in the future.

As the sun rises,

Dawn

Reveals the Hopes and dreams

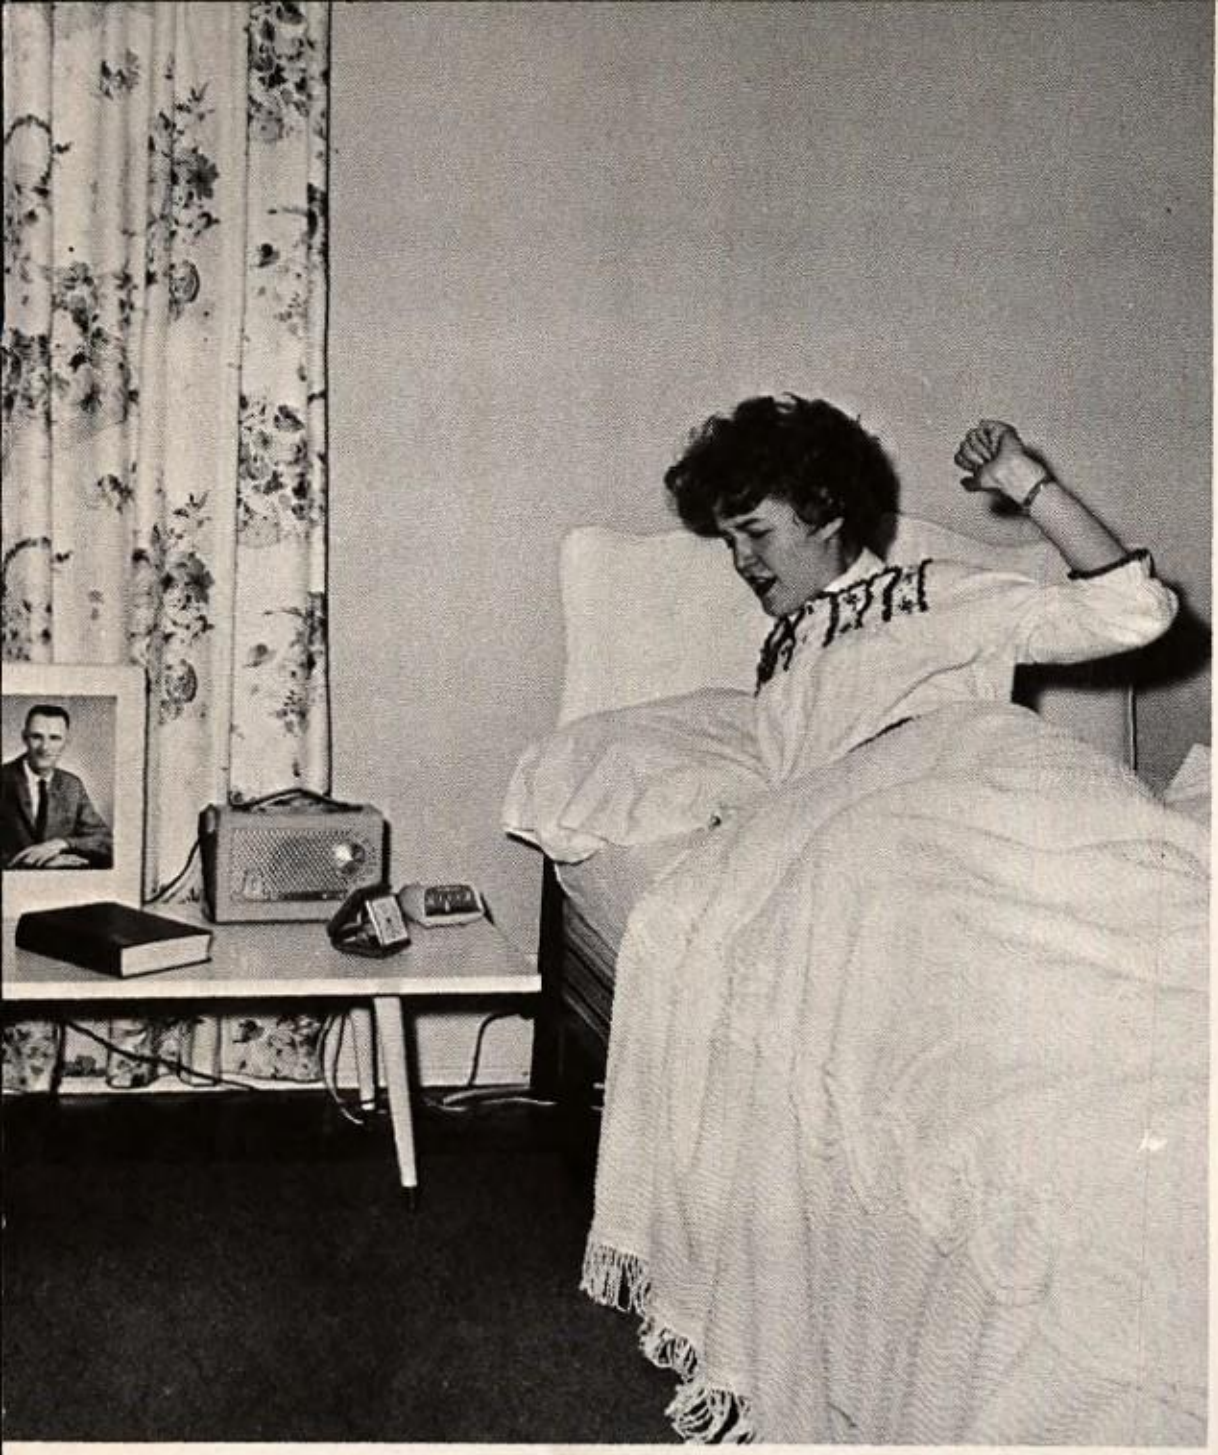
Born within

The typical

Home.



Life
stirs within as our typical girl awakens to meet a new challenge

and starts on her day's journey.

Companionship is one of our brightest Upper Sandusky jewels,

But our most precious stones are the ones who lead us
through the halls of education.

We

Proudly

Present

Class History

We returned to Harpster in September 1957 as bewildered, but eager Freshmen. We acquired six new members. They were Sharon Sheaffer, Shirley Schrader, Tyrus Cramer, Gary Gould, and Eddie Shumate from Wyandot and Lois Beaty from Tennessee. During the year we had one class party at Jeanne Beaschler's home under the supervision of Mrs. Denman, our advisor.

In 1958 we trouped back full force with all our former members and one new member, James Noble. Mrs. Denman was again our class advisor. We saved sales tax stamps to begin funds for our class treasury. We had two class parties, one at Gary Gould's home and one at the school.

Our Junior year arrived before we knew it. We had lost two members, Lois Beaty and James Noble. The whole year was a jumble of activity and excitement. Once again our faithful Mrs. Denman was our advisor. We sold refreshments at the ball games, had bake sales, and sold nuts and apple cider as money-making projects. On April 7, 1960 we presented our Junior play OFF THE TRACK under the direction of Mrs. Walton. Later in the spring we honored the Seniors with a banquet. Our theme was "The Harpster Hi-Hat Supper Club." We not only decorated the gym but the sidewalk and the entrance hall as well. We had waiters, a hat check girl, doorman, and a parking attendant. We also furnished our own entertainment from the varied "talents" of our class members. We learned that we would not be permitted to take a class trip when we were Seniors so we dug in and worked fervently to raise money to make the trip in our Junior year. We had scrap and paper drives and we achieved our goal. We ended this fabulous year with a five-day trip to Washington, D. C. Again we thank Mrs. Denman for making this possible.

We're Seniors! It seems almost impossible. We all thought it was so far in the future, but suddenly it was no longer future, it was the present. We were the first Harpster Seniors under the new Upper Sandusky system. During the year we sold ads and completed our section of the annual. Every six weeks we had a maddening scramble to complete our school paper. In the spring we presented our Senior play NO BOYS ALLOWED under the direction of Mrs. Fowler. On May 28, 1961, our Baccalaureate exercises were held and the next night we had our Commencement exercises. We are now afloat upon the sea of life!

Class Prophecy

As I gazed into my crystal ball, I saw myself visiting the Summer Olympics in Rome, Italy. A huge crowd was milling around a familiar-looking girl. As the picture grew clearer, I distinguished the face of Mary Ann Sheaffer, who had just won the pole vault event (women's division) for the United States. Official time keeper for the event was Larry Day, a high ranking member of the Olympic Committee. Lynda Phipps and Jean Maclaren, elementary school teachers in Miami, Florida, have brought their Pee Wee girls' football team to perform at the gathering of international peoples. This is the first team of its kind to be organized in the world.

On the sidelines I see a number of governmental personnel. In the center of attraction is Mary Ellen Swartz, the first woman president of our country. Incidentally she is still a very strong Democrat. Among the representatives to foreign countries I see Ty Cramer, whom Mary has named to the responsible position of Ambassador to Russia. Although Ty is one of Mary Ellen's deepest political foes, she was not too "party minded" in her selections of government employees. Also serving the United States with deep devotion is Eddie Shumate, a Major in the U.S. Air Force.

As my eyes journey over the crowd, I see Judy Kay Mathews a brilliant new star from Hollywood. Judy has written, produced, directed, and is now starring in her own adult western entitled MRS. PALADIN. Also present from the entertainment world is Elvis Presley and his devoted secretary, Sandra Ralph.

Hovering above the crowd in an electronic controlled air car, I see Shirley Schrader. Shirley, a world-famous newspaper woman, is reporting behind the scene activities for the New York Times.

There are still many people interested in the natural resources of our wonderful country in this space age. Two of the most prominent are Lester Johns and Eugene Egger, owners of the Coon Reserve in northern Ohio. Hunters may visit this reserve each hear for a large fee, and if they wish to improve their hunting techniques they may attend Lester and Gene's school of coon hunting which is conducted each summer. Also present is Jim Sheaffer, owner of the world's largest Columbia Sheep farm. Jim is also serving his native state as governor. Ohio is proud of its huge co-operative dairy farm backed by Gary Gould. Gary's farm is very successful, and he now spends most of his time in Paris, France, where he daily views all the pretty girls.

Accompanying Judy from California was Jeanne Beaschler, the favorite commercial teacher of the students at Los Angles High School. Another member of our class has entered the educational world. Sharon Sheaffer, whose husband is a chemistry professor at Columbia University, is head dietian at that same institution. Since Sharon has been planning the meals at Columbia, not one student has complained of the menu.

The future holds many unknown things. Even if these predictions do not come true, I'm sure that all the members of the class of 1961 will be very happy, successful, and contented doing the work of their choice.

In Appreciation

We, the 1961 Seniors of the Harpster Building, wish to express our sincere appreciation for all the physical, mental, and spiritual aid we have received over the years from our parents, all our teachers, and all of our other associates along the way.

Our special thanks go to:

Our grade school teachers for doing their best to start us on the right path.

Our junior high school teachers for trying to keep us there.

Mr. A.J. Bishop for his superior instruction in agriculture for our boys.

Mrs. Lois E. Denman for all her counseling. For being such a wise class advisor in our freshman, sophomore, and junior years, and especially for helping to make our dream, a trip to Washington, D.C., come into being.

Mrs. Alice Fowler for all her diligent but kind English "pounding," and for her capable direction of the Senior Play.

Mr. Anthony Guzzo for his patience and cheery advice on all our school papers and our annual.

Mr. Charles Karikas for his superlative coaching and his fine teaching.

Mr. Myron L. Koch, our faithful, genial science teacher, for his always being willing and eager to listen to our problems.

Mr. J.W. McAlpin for his patience and good discipline throughout each year, and for his excellent supervision as our senior class advisor.

Mrs. Mary Walton for her excellent direction of our Junior Play.

We deeply appreciate all these things.

Through the Years

Class History

The time is September, 1949. The occasion is the first day of school for twenty eager little children. They are Ronnie Emptage, Beverly Van Atta, Linda Westervelt, Ella McKinniss, Shirley Shifflet, Ann Bell, Marilyn Myles, Janet Kennedy, Kent Buckingham, Tommy Hensel, Johnny Kennedy, Ronnie Parsell, Tommy Uncapher, Harold Van Scoder, Duane Martin, Michial Myles, Wayne Rish, and Larry Hastings. That was just the beginning of many happy school years.

Mrs. Hughes welcomed us and helped us, not only through those first difficult days for us, but also through the entire first and second grades. Mrs. Walton and Miss Stalder came next, helping us through the third and fourth grades. The following year Mrs. Heckathorn became our teacher. She guided us through the fifth and sixth grades.

During those first six years, many students had come and gone, two of which were to stay with us the remainder of our school days. Jan Shields joined us in the second grade and Bill Miller in the third.

Before we knew it, we found ourselves in junior high school. Everything was so different for us. We had many new things to get accustomed to. Mr. Strahm and Mr. Jordan were our class advisors during those years. We gained two more students in the eighth grade that have stayed with us, Sandy Carothers and Lloyd Swavel.

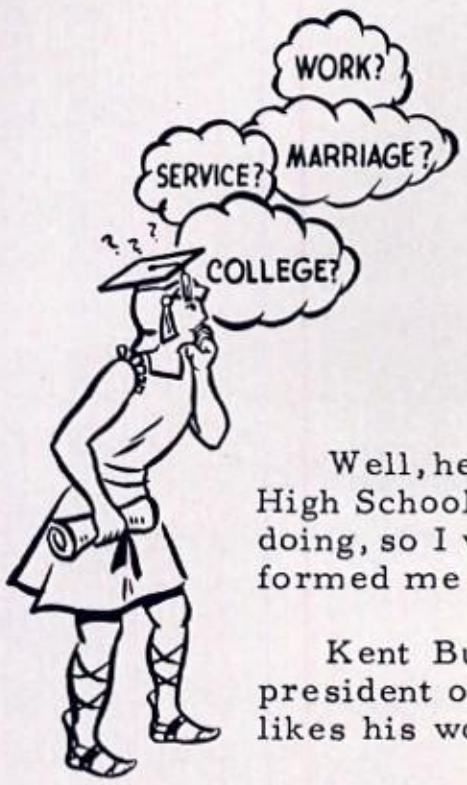
Now came the big moment, high school! The Seniors welcomed us with that unforgettable Freshman initiation. During that year we gained two more students, Irma Pfleider and John Osborn. Mr. Strahm was our advisor during that year and the following.

From our Junior year we have many memories. The two greatest are our play, "Let Me Talk" and the prom, the theme of which was "With a Song in my Heart." Bert Shearer joined our class that year.

Now our Senior year has arrived. To our regret, our class was divided, part attending some classes at Harpster and Upper Sandusky. Without doubt, the biggest event of this year will be graduation. Six of the original class members plus seven that have joined us along the way look forward to this occasion. They are, respectively, Ann Bell, Janet Kennedy, Ronnie Emptage, Kent Buckingham, Michial Myles, Johnny Kennedy, Janet Shields, Bill Miller, Sandy Carothers, Lloyd Swavel, Irma Pfleider, John Osborn, and Bert Shearer.

We wish to express our gratitude and thanks to Mr. Neiswander for his help and guidance as our class advisor during our Junior and Senior years.

One section of our life is now history, but we have another very important part to live, our future. We are all looking forward to this with much hope, faith, and expectation.



Class Prophecy

Well, here it is 1971, ten years since I graduated from dear old Marseilles High School. A few weeks ago, I was wondering how my old classmates were doing, so I wrote a letter to a dear friend, the former Janet Kennedy. She informed me that they were all very successful.

Kent Buckingham, a successful graduate of Ohio State University, is now president of the Pineapple-Grapefruit Growers of Hawaii. I'll bet Kent really likes his work.

Ron Emptage is now the manager of the IGA store in Marseilles. He is also the proud father of three little red-headed boys. I guess Ron always did like the store.

Sandra Carothers is happily settled with her farmer husband and eight children. Sandy's high school dream came true.

John Osborn is a high-ranking officer in the US Marines. After all that waiting, he finally joined the Marines.

Mike Myles is driving race cars at the Indianapolis "500." Mike always did like to drive fast.

Lloyd Swavel is a big-game hunter in Africa. I guess his deer-hunting experiences really paid off.

Bert Shearer is a successful businessman. He owns the Shearer Toothpick Company in Chicago, Illinois. Bert always was a good businessman, even in high school.

Janet Kennedy is a fabulous interior decorator in New York. Her husband is in the Marines and they now have three children.

Bill Miller has a large florist shop in Marseilles. I guess Bill is doing very well in this business.

Irma Pfleider is a private secretary to her husband, who owns a large company in Chicago. They have four lovely children.

Janet Shields has married a millionaire from the sunny state of California. She met him at a homecoming game, at which she reigned as queen.

John Kennedy is head coach for the Harlem Globetrotters of New York. John always did like basketball, even though it didn't like him.

If you're wondering who I am, it's Ann Belle. I'm now a Registered Nurse living in New York City with my husband and two daughters.

CLASS WILL

Through the twelve years of our schooling, we have gained certain rights and privileges which other students do not have. As we are now leaving this school we no longer have any use for these things. However, it would be a shame to just forget them, so, being of sound mind and memory, we do bequeath the following attributes to the following persons:

I, Irma Pfleider, will my great typing speed to Wanda Hensel, and my midget-like appearance to Jerry Soule.

I, Jan Shields, will my broken seat in Lit class to Linda Jacobs.

I, Ron Emptage, will my nickname, Red, to Llowell Bear, and my ability to study until 12:00 to Tom Sayre.

I, Mike Myles, will my ability to wreck cars to Tom Sayre, who has already had experience in this field.

I, Bert Shearer, will my membership in the Stella Stenos, (an all-girl club) to any boy who can get away with it.

I, Sandra Carothers, will my tight skirts and hair to Mrs. Heilman, and my brilliant speed in shorthand to Linda Jacobs.

I, John Osborn, will my "Brains" to anybody who has a head big enough to handle them.

I, Kent Buckingham, will my comb to Eugene Kerns, and my shyness to Larry Hemmerly.

I, Lloyd Swavel, will my height to Marianne Pfleider.

I, Bill Miller, will my ability to grow whiskers to Tom Sayre.

I, John Kennedy, will my good looks to the coach.

I, Janet Kennedy, will my wardrobe to Pat Arnold, and my good grades in world history to Gary Clawson.

I, Ann Bell, will my ability to goof off and get away with it to Caroline Emptage and Connie Jacobs, and my shyness to Randy Woods.

What Jack's Really Like

By Marianne Pfleider

Assistant principal at Marseilles, Mr. Jack Klietz, has interests on varied subjects. To correlate this, we shall study his past.

He is a graduate of Cleveland Heights High School and of Bowling Green State University. He was formerly employed at Burton High School, thirty miles east of Cleveland, where he was athletic director, director of visual studies, golf instructor and teacher of social studies. He resigned this position during the summer of 1959 to accept the superintendency of our school following Mr. Robert Strahm who is now superintendent of the New Bremen High School.

Class History

When our class started its long journey through school in 1949, we had 16 members in our class. They were: Harry Shearer, Rodney Richards, Evelyn Koehler, Carol Frank, Jeanette Altvater, Carol Heilman, Joan Dible, John Rowe, Ray Barney, William Davidson, Marion Boutwell, Rick Scheck, Vija Veldre, Robert Dible, Ralph Vogel, and Janice Miller. Mrs. Veith was our teacher.

As we returned in September, Kenneth McMillan and Arthur Schertzer joined us. Evelyn Koehler and John Rowe left us. Mrs. Veith was our teacher.

The following September as third graders, joining us were Carlton Mittermaier, James Kerr, Melvin Dible, Jeannie Wiley, Lester Johns, and Eddie Lambright. Mrs. McClain was our teacher.

In the fourth year of school, Miss Stansberry was our teacher. Joining us were John Shaffer and Raymond Burton. We lost Vija Veldre, Eddie Lambright and Ralph Vogel.

We entered the fifth grade with Mrs. McClain as our teacher. Later in the year, Mrs. Summit taught us. Joanne Gault joined us and also Roger LaWarre. Lester Johns and John Shaffer left us.

In our sixth grade, we had seventeen members in our class with Mrs. Ludlow as our teacher.

Entering Junior High, we lost Melvin Dible. Mrs. Walton was our class sponsor.

In the eighth grade, John Shaffer, Owen Ratliff, Douglas Ratliff, and Tom Williams joined us. Glenn Smith left us. Mrs. Hofer was our class sponsor.

Now that we have been promoted to high school, we had a total of fourteen members in our freshman class with Mr. Wink as our sponsor. Owen and Douglas Ratliff left us.

In our tenth year at Salem, we had fourteen members in our class with Mr. Hamman as our class sponsor.

We finally became Juniors with Mrs. Bernard as our sponsor.

Entering our twelfth and final year at SHS, we had as our sponsor, Mr. Walcutt. Those that went to school all twelve years at Salem are: Rodney Richards, Jeanette Altvater, Bill Davidson, Marion Boutwell, Rick Scheck, Robert Dible, and Janice Miller. During the year, Carol Walton left us. Those that will be graduating with us will be Tom Williams, John Shaffer, Carlton Mittermaier, Kenneth McMillan, and Arthur Schertzer.

During the last four years we received our class rings, presented two plays, "Antics of Andrew" and "Old Lady Robins," and we went on our Junior and Senior trips.

As we look back over the twelve years that we attended SHS we have had many grand times together and we will always remember the good times during our high school days.

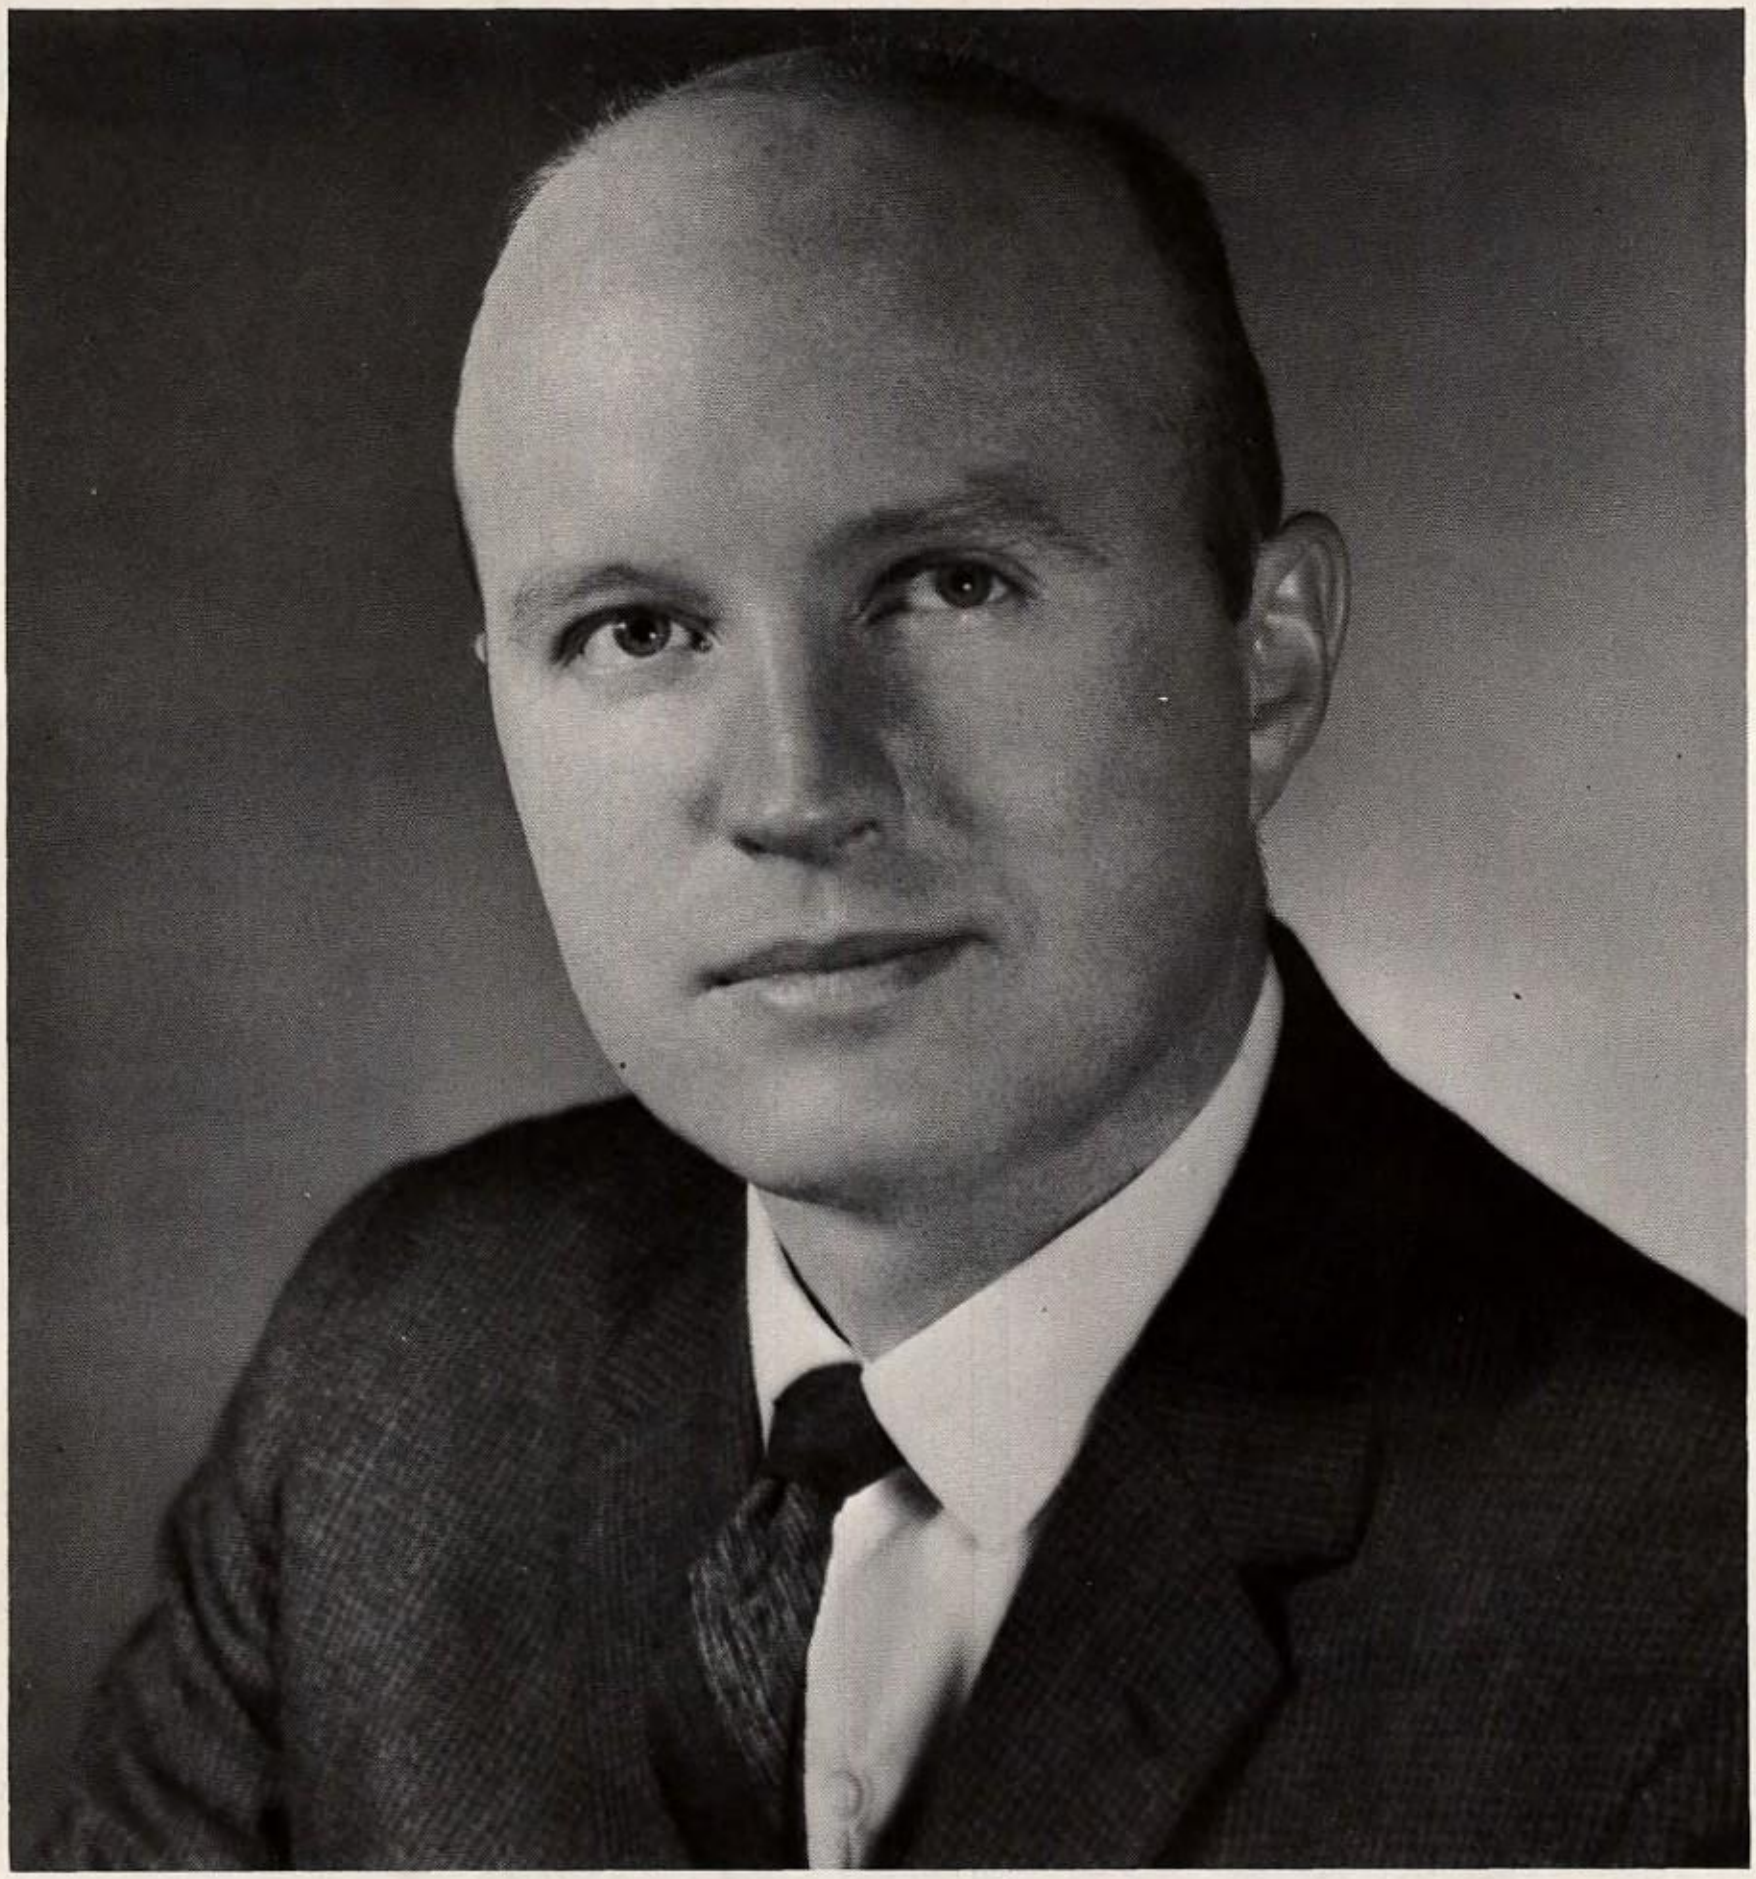
PEOPLE



Superintendent Eugene Bennett's Message

The most important accomplishments that happened to you this year have not been included in this annual.

These unphotographed achievements include: your full understanding of and dedication as a citizen to your democracy; and development of a sympathetic understanding of the other human beings who make up our world, a knowledge of their problems, their strides forward and enrichment of your life through art, literature and music.

Strengthened moral attitudes, concepts of right, fairness, and justice have also been impossible to pose for the camera.

Your teachers have no pride greater than in knowing these "most important of all" values exist, have been nurtured during the year and will endure through you.

These Gentlemen

To the graduates of 1961:

In a world of unrest and rapid technological advance, a good education is of the utmost importance. Every student must be prepared to meet the challenge of tomorrow. It is my wish for each of you that your days at Upper Sandusky High School will be but the beginning of your quest for knowledge and understanding, for the individual who is well educated is always in search of further enlightenment.

Best wishes to all of you. May your future accomplishments reflect credit on you and your high school.

Sincerely,
Paul Groth, Principal

Direct Our Courses.

RUSSELL WOLFE

Mr. Wolfe has the difficult task of guiding the men into the fields of their interest and best ability. In addition, he must maintain excuses, a job that seems never-ending. We appreciate the work he has done throughout the year.

These People Assist with

MARGARET WITZEL

Mrs. Witzel provides a kind, listening ear for all our excuses--specious or not. Her guidance is also helpful when we have problems about our present or future. We extend our thanks for her diligence.

GRACE SLEMMER

Miss Slemmer and Mrs. Herring, secretaries to our administrators, also give much assistance to students. They hear our problems, laugh at our jokes, and we enjoy having them in our school.

BETTY HERRING

the Necessary Details.

SEATED: David Needs, Harold Mason, Karl Gerber. STANDING: Morris Kuenzli, Wayne Myers.

These men take time out from their daily work to provide a silent, guiding hand to the school system. One of their main tasks this year was the effecting of the school merger. We appreciate greatly their excellent work and perseverance.

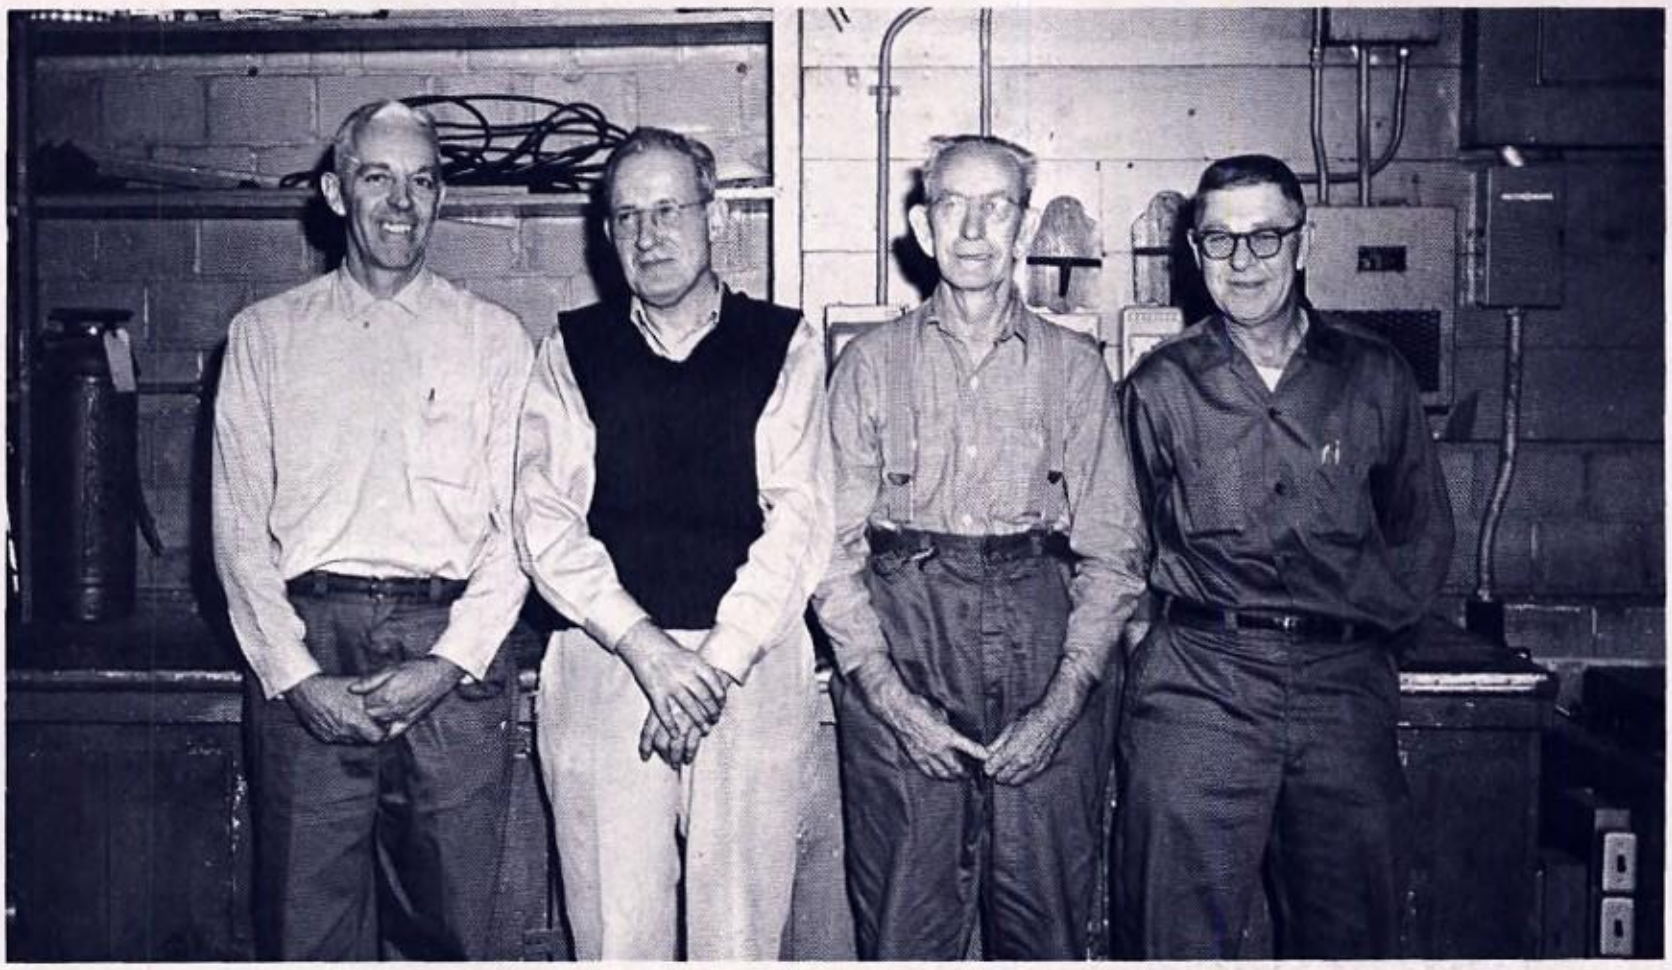
They Receive Little Glory,

Mrs. Denman

Our head cafeteria manager has the responsibility of planning and purchasing for our high schools and grade schools.

Our cooks, under the supervision of Mrs. Denman, prepare daily meals for our students.

We appreciate the nourishing meals that enable us to withstand the rush of the day's studies and activities. These ladies also perform valuable services when special occasions arise in connection with school activities.



Custodians
Mr. Kotterman, Mr. Arnold, Mr. Cox, Mr. Swartz.

Our four janitors keep the halls of U.S.H.S. clean and shining. We also call on them to perform such odd jobs as replacing light bulbs, unlocking doors, setting up chairs, and even acting as assistant deputy sheriffs.

Bus Drivers
Mr. Gottfried, Mr. Courtad, Mr. Horn, Mr. Smith, Mr. Feeley, Mr. Ulrich, Mr. Mohre, Mr. Swartz, Mr. Norris, Mr. Sandridge.

Our bus drivers have the responsibility of seeing that we arrive at school and return home safely after a busy day.

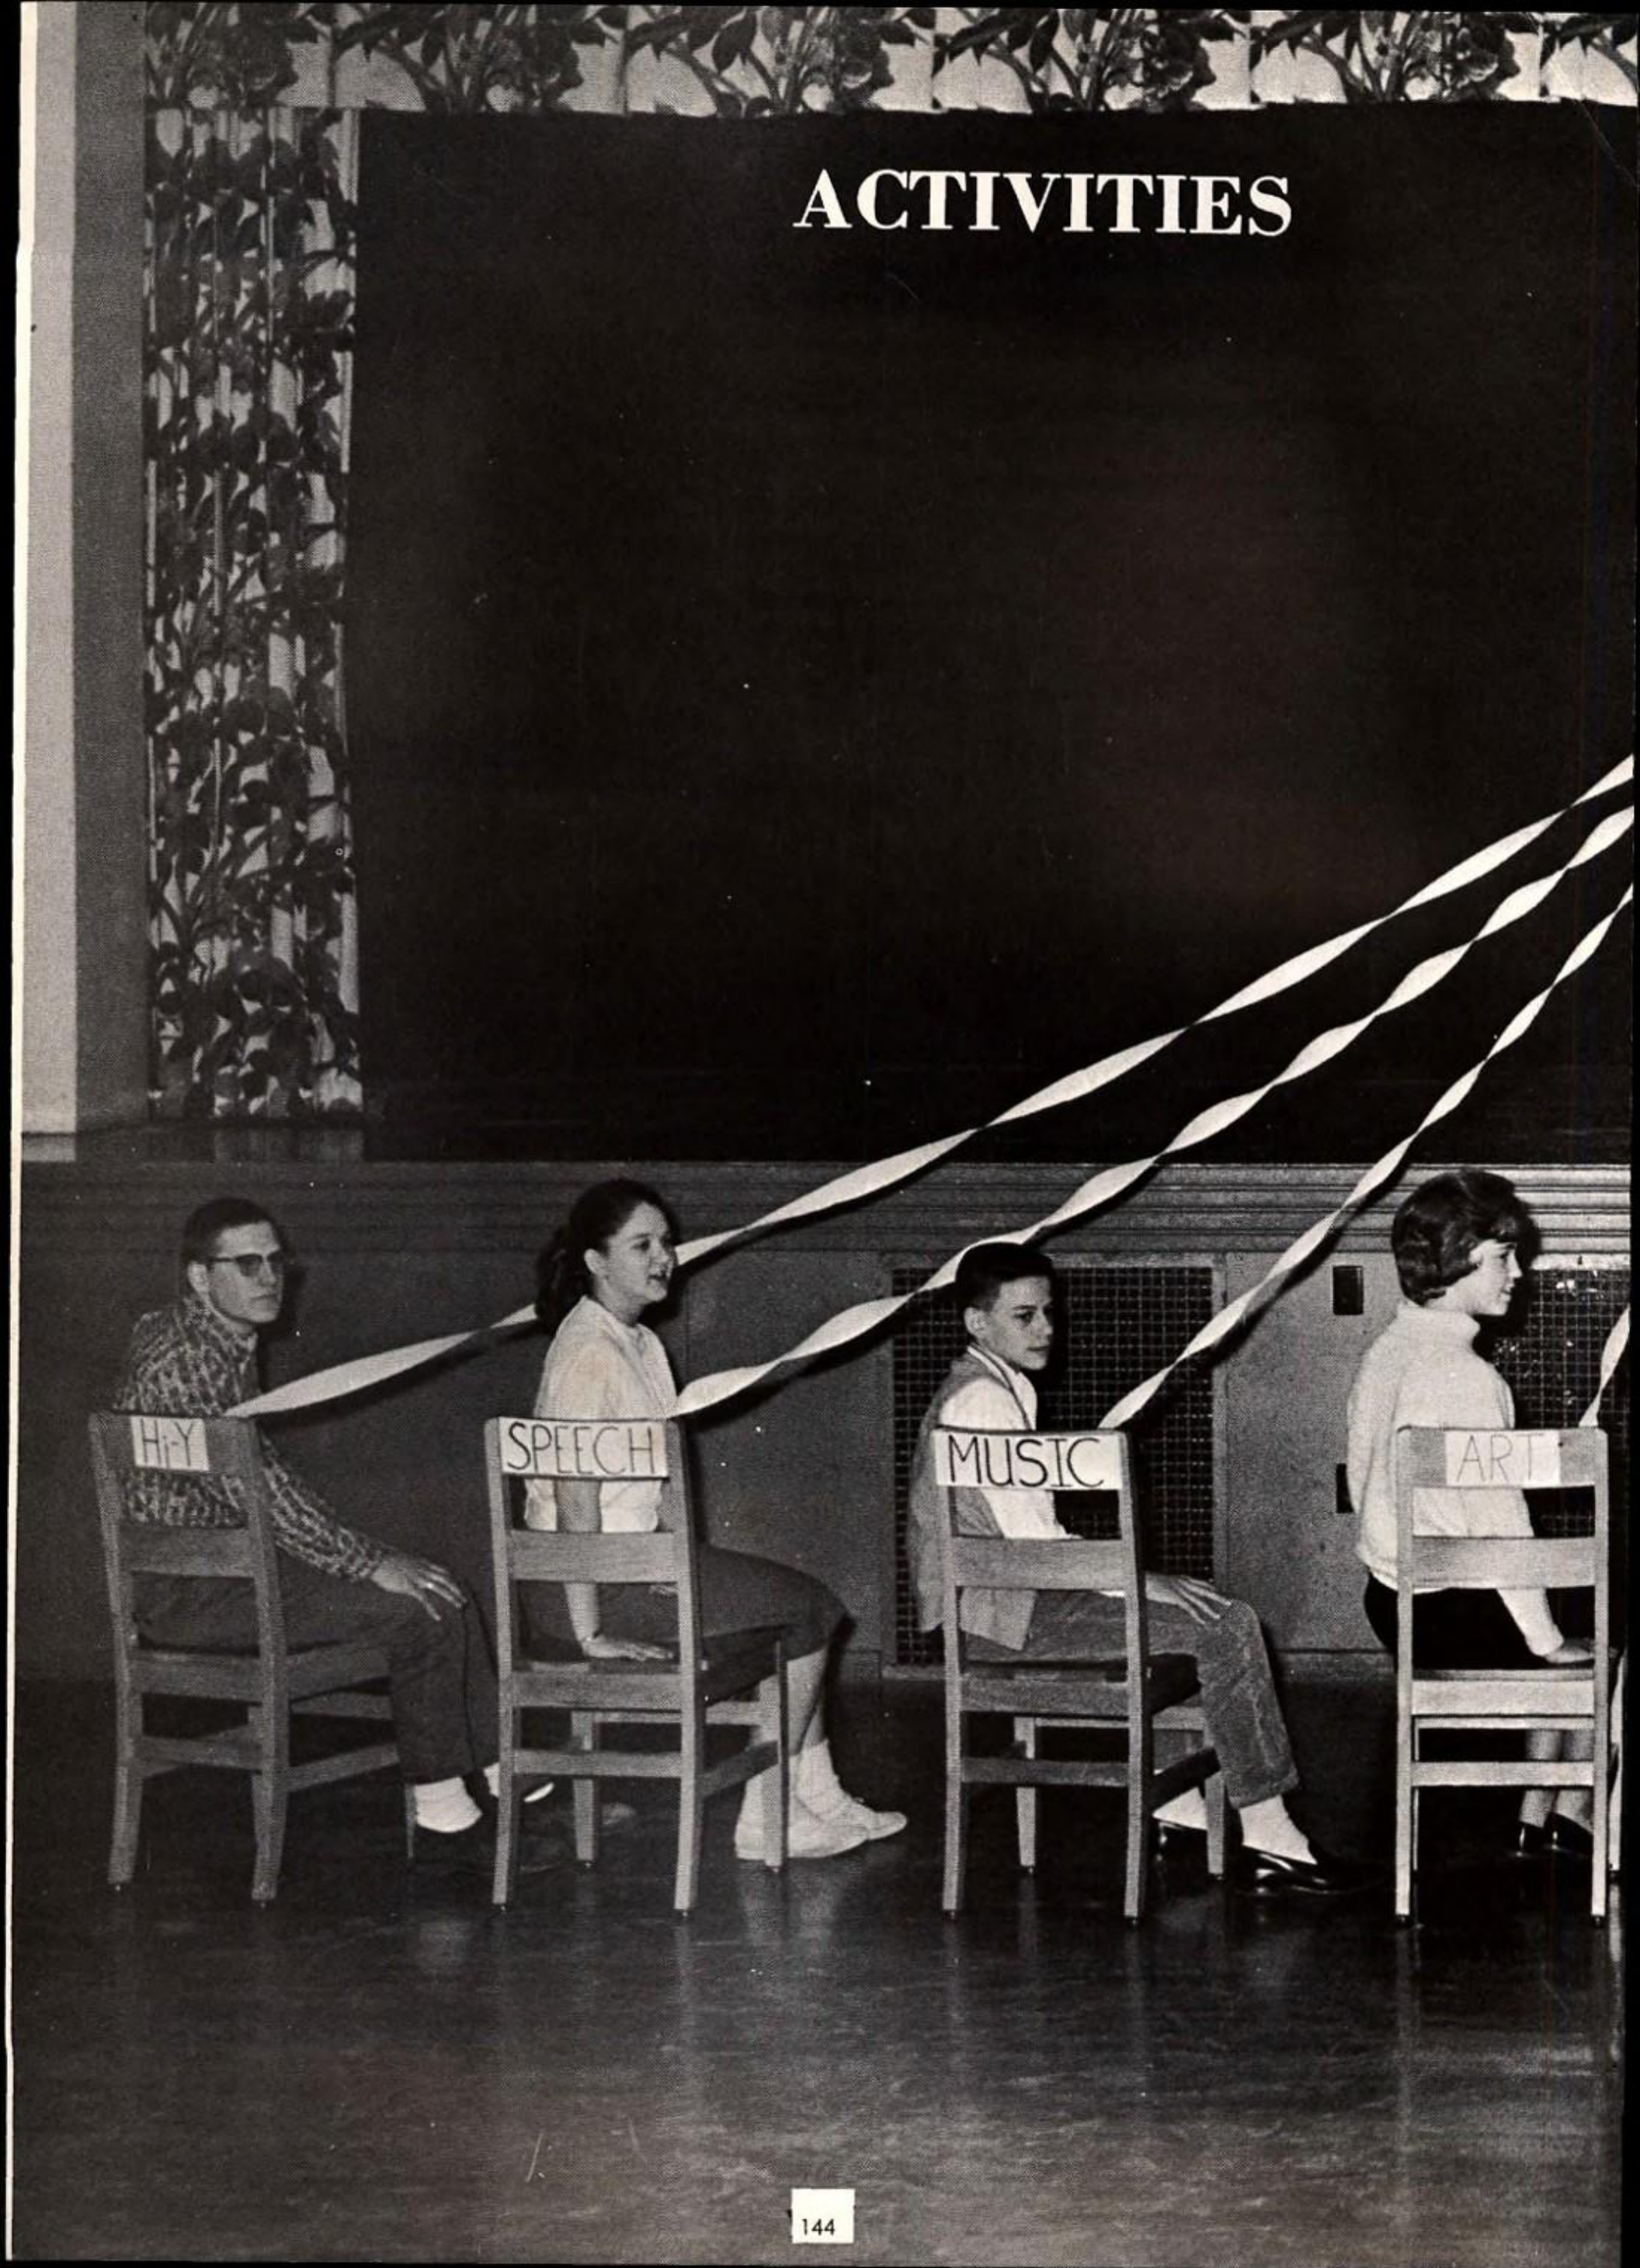
ACTIVITIES



Life
at Upper High is more than a classroom schedule.

This Is Our Hub.

Student Council

ROW 1: E. Emick, P. Runyon, J. Needs, J. Thiel, Mr. Paul Groth. ROW 2: M. Snyder, J. Lawrence, B. Swartz, J. Kuenzli, S. Strasser, R. Hooper, S. Courtad, B. Gerber. ROW 3: G. Mohre, D. Kiess, D. Carroll, E. Chadwick, D. Frisch, J. McCord, L. Horne, G. Loverich.

The student body of U.S.H.S. was well represented in the Student Council with Mr. Paul H. Groth, Principal, as its Director. This group has done much for the benefit of Upper High.

Scholarship Medal Winners

ROW 1: M. Iles, S. Getz, M. Harmon, A. Harman, S. Strasser, P. Hall, L. Oney, M. Myers. ROW 2: B. Logsdon, N. Sebenoler, C. Day, R. Kolarik, S. McWilliams, C. Osborn, P. Markley, J. Borton, B. Borton. ROW 3: J. Needs, R. Goodman, J. McCord, D. Vogel, W. Robinson, C. Bartholomew, L. Caldwell, D. Pfeifer, R. Cattran, R. Steiner, R. Hamman, J. Bolton, D. Rhoden, R. Witzel, L. Dillion, C. Jacqueth.

These are the students who have won at least two scholarship medals. To earn these awards, they must have a 3.4 average or better. We of Upper High are proud of these students who are making a success of their high school careers.

Tri-Masque

ROW 1: Miss Ruth Spies, J. Wisner, P. Runyon, B. Bringham. ROW 2: J. Evans, P. Culver, K. Harold, J. Kuenzli, A. Harmon, R. Brott, M. Ulrich, J. Hendricks, R. Warfel, B. Kinley, C. Frank, T. We Enjoy the Theater.

Thespians

ROW 1: A. Swartz, C. Balduf, J. Lawrence, N. Archer, Miss Ruth Spies. ROW 2: L. Mills, L. Wines, C. Frank, P. Runyon, N. Sebenoler, J. Thiel, L. Larcomb, B. Kinley. ROW 3: T. Martin, T. Herald, B. Newell, D. Hehr, D. Vogel, L. Horne, B. Bilsing, M. Snyder, R. Castanien.

All members of the Tri-Masque organization are interested in and participate in the various dramatic productions given during the school year. Many of these people perform valuable back-stage services. A member must earn extra points to maintain his membership.

Thespians are those who have excelled in the field of theater, and have earned at least ten points.

Radio Club

FIRST ROW: C. Harmon, J. Thiel, B. Newell, B. Bringman, M. Hirsch, P. Runyon, D. Garner, Adviser Miss Ruth Spies. SECOND ROW: K. Herald, J. Wisner, J. Lawrence, M. Synder, N. Archer, B. Thomas, J. Kuenzli, R. Warfel. THIRD ROW: N. Sebenoler, B. Bilsing, A. Swartz, L. Horne, M. Myers, L. Larcomb.

Our radio club airs a weekly program over WMRN. This is a challenge in writing, timing, and voice control as well as a stimulus for students interested in radio work.

The public address system is in charge of the daily noon activity in the auditorium. They also take charge of some special sound effects during dramatic productions.

Visual Ed.

J. Needs, B. Tilton, Mr. Koenig, M. Hirsch.

Most of the students are familiar with the faithful fellows who show the movies.

FIRST ROW: S. Walton, B. Bils, R. Kolarik, L. Oney, S. Rome, J. Hendricks, SECOND ROW: R. Hammon, J. Reed, J. Thiel, A. Diller, M. Myers, C. Frank, W. Robinson, B. Liles.

D. Vogel, Miss Hert, A. Harmon, J. McCord, J. Needs.

Our Extra-curricular speech students traveled more than 3,000 car miles this year and had a successful season. Traveling from Springfield to Sylvania made it necessary to rise as early as 5:30 on some Saturdays.

Carol Frank, John Reed and Jill Hendricks placed in the district, thus entitling them to compete in the state contest.

Linda Oney won a trophy in extemporaneous speaking at Sylvania, and Jill Hendricks walked off with first place at district. Sydne Rome placed second in the Toledo Whitmer and Sylvania tournaments.

The debate team won first in the Delaware tournament and at district. They went on to the state semi-finals in Columbus and placed third in the state.

The 1961 Ram band stepped snappily through the football season. This corps consisting of 23 seniors, 20 juniors, 26 sophomores, and 27 freshmen, thrilled the hearts of the Upper Sandusky fans many times. Memorable moments consist of band camp during the hottest weeks of summer, and band night when the seniors marched for the last time.

The Ram band sincerely hopes that you who watched enjoyed their shows as much as those who performed.

Miss Ruth Spies may well be proud of the 1960-61 Upper Sandusky Senior Choir.

Under her directorship the choir sang at our Thanksgiving assembly and presented the townspeople with an excellent Christmas concert.

On April 14, they traveled to Willard, where they received an enthusiastic ovation for their performance. Also on the agenda for season were a spring concert and singing at Baccalaureate Exercises for the graduating seniors.

A credit to Upper High, you may look back on your memories with great satisfaction.

Junior Class Play

"Speak to me, pretty Primrose," pleads Ann. Diane Pfeifer, Dave Garner, Roger Castanien and Marcia Myers.

"Oh, I'll be glad to walk to the bend with you, Thad." Al George and Jackie Kuenzli.

"Don't leave me in this thing!" Marcia Myers and Roger Castanien.

"You can have more fun behind an umbrella!" Bob Kinley, Jim Weaver, Sue Strasser, and Jim Evans.

Shows Off Our Talent.

"Now, girls, for a hike in the great outdoors!" Celia Harmon, Jill Hendricks, Kathy Herald, Mary Mason, Barb Richardson, and Linda Shuherk.

The MacDonald family--Don, (Roger Castanien) Betty, (Diane Pfeifer) Ann, (Marcia Myers) and Joan, (Sue Strasser)--was happy until father decided to make his life-long dream of living on a chicken farm come true. The family's next door neighbors are an inquisitive woman (Betty Newell) and her pessimistic husband (Wayne Dickason). The girls are chagrined to learn that there is no telephone, no running water, no bathroom, and, worst of all, no boys, except Thad, (Al George) who has been claimed by "first born." But Ann's adventures with Thad are not easy because there is competition from Corine (Jackie Kuenzli). The chicken is Thad's first choice. Life is complicated by the "Lingerie Lady" (Judy Hines), Don's Indian friend (Dwight Gibson), and a skunk. Joanie manages to attract two boyfriends, a lumberjack (Jim Evans) and an athlete (Jim Weaver), but she is in the height of her glory when she discovers that there is to be a boys' camp nearby. She is highly disturbed when the five outdoor girls (Celia Harmon, Jill Hendricks, Kathy Herald, Mary Mason, and Barb Richardson) and Millicent (Linda Shuherk) arrive to share her boys. The Egg and I ends happily when the outdoor girls leave because of the skunk, and Primrose wins an egg laying contest, thus enabling the family to pay off their debts and make house improvements.

Seniors' Final Production,

On the evenings of May 5 and 6 the seniors, under the direction of Miss Marilyn Hert, presented CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN.

Mr. Gilbreth, (Larry Bennett) an efficiency expert, demonstrates how to save time in the bath tub and even believed that his twelve children could learn French and German by playing language records while getting ready for school. Dad also believed that a household could be run like a factory. Mom (Nancy Sebenoler) was the family psychologist and gained her way by suggesting allowance cuts.

The life of Anne, (Elsie Emick) the eldest daughter, was complicated by a cheerleader Joe Scales, (Vernon Orians) a fellow named Larry, (Earl Chadwick) and Dad's demands that she skip grades in school and maintain A's.

Dad revealed that he wanted to save time for art, music, or mumbly-peg, if that is where the heart lies.

"You'll not wear these! You can see right through them!"

Leads--Pat Menningen, Bob Bilsing, Elsie Emick, Larry Bennett, Nancy Sebenoler.

We Danced the Night Away

On May 19th, 1961, Upper Sandusky juniors and seniors carefully and nervously dressed for the long awaited prom.

Fellows in White dinner jackets and girls in their loveliest dresses entered the school auditorium and were greeted by "Aloha," leis, and the fellows received a welcome kiss. Couples then entered a paradise world of flowers, palm trees, straw hats, fountains, sand, water and music.

At one o'clock they left their make-believe world behind and went to the Star Theater where they saw "High Time." Square dancing and games followed and a sleepy group greeted dawn by having breakfast together at the East School building. Thus turned another page of cherished high school memories.
